

Mrs. Mary Regan of Niles sent word to Cpl. TOMMY CHAMPION, now in England, to forget the English girls and to go over to Ireland and find himself a nice Irish lass. Cpl. Champion wrote right back and said that's exactly what he has done, only he met the Irish girl in England. To prove what a bonnie lass she is, he sent her picture home for his parents to see. The corporal has made arrangements for a two-day pass at the end of this month. He plans to spend it visiting Capt. E. C. GRAU, also in England.

EL2/c JOHN PEREIRA writes to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Pereira, that he is no longer at Hawaii, but is now somewhere in the Mariannas. "Lots of hard work and long hours," says John.

Cpl. FRANK SANCHEZ, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sanchez of Decoto, was home on a 7-day furlough recently. He has now been retrained for New York and points overseas. He has already served two years in Alaska.

PHILIP RAMSEL of Irvington is being welcomed home this week by old friends. He has not been released as yet from the Mitchell Convalescent Hospital in San Diego, where he is under treatment for battle injuries, but he has been given a short leave for a visit home.

Ramsel was sent to the Pacific area after two years of training at Fort Ord and went through a lot of tough fighting, earning several decorations for gallantry. He was in the campaign that won the Admiralties, New Guinea and Los Negros.

Last December he was severely wounded and shipped back to the Letterman Hospital in San Francisco. He missed out on all of the Christmas packages sent to him; they haven't reached him yet.

Cpl. RAYMOND CRANE, son of Mrs. Sarah Crane of Niles, is back with his old unit, the 201st General Hospital, "somewhere in France." Cpl. Crane has been moving around quite a bit and writes his mother that in his last mail he received 28 letters.

Pvt. JOHN DANIELS, formerly of Mission and Centerville, has been in the Philippines since invasion day on Leyte, when he landed there.

M/Sgt. WILLIAM J. FOSTER has been in Paris for the past six months. Prior to that time he had been in Ireland and England.

In letters to his mother, Mrs. Jane Foster of Newark, he tells of the beautiful sight that Paris is, covered with snow. He says the French are short of heat and suffer from the winter cold.

WITH U.S. SUPPLY FORCES IN BELGIUM (Special to The Register)—Pfc. CLYDE MILLER, son of Mr. and Mrs. Liona Miller of Niles, Calif., was recently promoted to that rating at the 95th General Hospital in Belgium. He is an ambulance driver for the hospital, a medical installation in advance section, communications zone.

Pfc. Miller was employed by the California Nursery Company at Niles before entering service.

Sgt. WILLIAM SANTANA has been "somewhere in the Pacific" for the past eight months. He took training at San Diego and has been in the service for three years. He is a graduate of Washington High.

S. P. SIGNALMEN HOLD ANNUAL PARTY AT NILES

Signalmen of the Southern Pacific Company, together with their wives, held a dinner party at the International Kitchen on Saturday evening, Feb. 10. Thirty places were served and all in attendance expressed the belief that Niles was one of the best eating places on the Coast.

The Niles district signal department comprises all of the territory from Fruitvale east to Newark, Redwood Junction, Santa Clara, San Jose, Niles, Tracy and Tracy to Antioch. The men of this department have charge of construction and maintenance of all safety devices, such as block signals, interlocking plants, crossing protection and remote control. Upon the shoulders of these men rests the responsibility of safely moving the enormous volume of war-time traffic.

The Niles district is under direct charge of C. M. Lyon, assistant signal supervisor, with headquarters in Niles; and also located in Niles is Harold Houghton, lead signalman, and James Neill, main-tainer. Niles also is the headquarters from which a repair gang works under the leadership of Walter S. Swanson.

P.T.A. SHOULD STUDY PEACE, SAYS SPEAKER

P.T.A. organizations throughout the land must take a vital interest in the forthcoming peace conference of the world. This was the highlight of an address by Mrs. J. S. Haines, 16th district president, at the Founders Day meeting of the Niles P.T.A. last Tuesday night.

Mrs. Haines pointed out the advantage of P.T.A. units taking advantage of the literature now being offered by the head office, dealing with the points covered by the Dumbarton Oaks Conference and by the conference that is now in session. This literature will enable units to hold open discussion during meetings on the most important problem facing the world today.

She also dealt briefly with the youth center movement, now sweeping the country. She stated that there is an urgent need for such centers, and that P.T.A. groups could do much for the youth of the country by assisting them in getting started in these centers.

P.T.A. does not oppose, she said, nor yet does it endorse, compulsory military training. Further investigation is necessary.

As part of the celebration of Founders Day the girls of the eighth grade presented a candle-lighting ceremony that found favor with the audience. At the conclusion of the ceremony Mrs. J. A. Silva was presented with a life membership award after an appropriate introduction by E. Dixon Bristow, principal.

Several past presidents of the Niles unit were also present and were honored during the evening by being made the recipients of gifts as tokens of appreciation for work they have done. Those present were Mmes. E. A. Ellsworth, Fred Duffie, Charles Myrick and Reginald Calhoun.

Joe Gomes and Jack Alberg and their wives represented the board of trustees. Mr. Gomes stressed the fact that the board has been and will continue to be as co-operative as possible in working with the P.T.A. He expressed the hope of having a larger cafeteria as soon as materials become available.

Mrs. Catherine Parry, cafeteria manager, reported that in January, the first month during which the cafeteria functioned under the new WFA lunch plan, 2906 lunches were served, and 844 bottle of milk were served at recess time.

After refreshments, served in the cafeteria, the meeting was adjourned by Mrs. L. A. Mayer, president. The next meeting will be held March 13.

OUTSTANDING SPEAKERS WILL BE HEARD AT ST. JAMES

The first of a series of outstanding bay region clergy will be heard this Sunday evening at the 8 o'clock vesper service at St. James Episcopal Church, Centerville.

The Rev. George Morrell, rector of St. Mary the Virgin in San Francisco and lecturer in theology at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific in Berkeley, will be the first guest preacher.

Sunday evening services will continue throughout Lent in addition to regular ones.

BABY'S LIFE SAVED, WONDERS WHAT THE FUSS IS ALL ABOUT

"Almost saved a life, but somebody beat me to it."

This remark was made the other day by Tony Lucas of Niles, telling about a hair-raising episode that occurred on the Western Pacific crossing at Decoto.

Lucas was driving toward the crossing when he was stunned at seeing a baby not more than a year and a half old playing on the tracks and a train bearing down on the toddler.

"It made you shudder to see that kid playing there with no grown-up around to yank him out of the way," Lucas said.

He jammed on his brakes and got out of his car to rescue the baby. But the occupants of another car also saw the child's danger and they got out and picked him up off the tracks just in time.

The baby, bewildered by all this fuss just because he was having a nice quiet game for himself on the nice railroad tracks, was finally deposited at his home across a field some distance away.

His mother was unaware that he had been missing.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS MAKE HONOR SOCIETY

Ten more students were initiated into the California Scholarship Federation, No. 111, at Washington Union High School at appropriate ceremonies held in the auditorium last Tuesday. Three students were given life memberships.

A student must have a high scholastic average in order to gain entrance into this honorary society, a total of 10 points a semester (A grades are 3 points; B grades, 1 point) being required.

Students initiated were Betty Grau, Eunice Davis, Joyce Harvey, Diane Crossman, Vivian Maciel, Virginia Ruelas, Dolores Rose, Rosella Lorensen, Greta Mohn and Leslie Halliday.

The three who were given life membership awards were Rose Fong, Dorothy Jackson and Vivian Rose.

As part of the initiation program Norma Bettencourt and Betty Ives presented piano and vocal selections and Miss Whitehurst gave a short talk on art.

FARMERS ADVISED ON SLAUGHTERING BY LOCAL OPA

The Niles office of the OPA this week issued the following release on the slaughter of cattle by farmers:

"A farmer may slaughter his own stock under certain conditions, primarily for consumption in his own household, or on a farm he operates. He may consume the meat and let those who eat at his table or on the farm consume it without giving up points, only if:

"1. He either operates a farm at which he resides more than 6 months a year, or actually supervised the raising of the livestock and was on the premises on which the livestock was raised at least one-third of the days during the applicable period specified in subparagraph (2); and

"2. The livestock was raised on the premises operated by him; (a) from birth to the moment of slaughter; or (b) for at least 60 days immediately preceding the slaughter; or (c) for a period immediately preceding slaughter during which weight was increased by at least 35 per cent of its weight when acquired.

"Farmers must register on Form 1609 showing monthly slaughtering poundage. He must show to whom he delivered meat as sales, gifts, or point free. At time of transfer he will collect points required and surrender to the board with report 1609."

NILES MAN INJURED IN HAYWARD ACCIDENT

J. C. Baker of Niles suffered a cut above the right eye early last Sunday morning when the automobile in which he was riding struck the rear end of a parked truck in Hayward.

John L. Brunette, driver of the car, told officers he did not see the stalled truck-trailer because the reflectors on the trailer were dirty and did not show up properly.

200 TURN OUT FOR BOY SCOUT COURT OF HONOR

"Eddie Cantor's Program," put on by the seventh grade of the Niles Grammar School under the direction of Mrs. Rathbone, and two miniature Black Sambos doing jig dances, staged by Bill Koski Sr. and Jr. were the hits of the evening at the Boy Scout Court of Honor held at the Niles school last Thursday. This was the consensus of more than 200 persons who witnessed the affair.

Little Rafael Andrade rolled them in the aisles with his impersonation of Eddie Cantor, in the seventh-grade skit, as did Clarence Chivers as Clem and Mildred Rose as Daisy Mae.

As for the little Black Sambos, everyone wanted to know "How do they do it?"

It's all very simple—when you know how—and Bill Koski, Niles scoutmaster, knows how.

He learned to make them when he lived in Modesto. They're really nothing more than plywood dolls, painted coal black, with big red lips and white vests.

Made in a very loose-jointed fashion, it's no trick at all once you learn how to manipulate them so that they jig in perfect time.

HIT AT SHOEMAKER

These little Black Sambos have made their appearance up at Shoemaker Hospital and proved such a hit that the Niles Scouts are making 15 of them to donate to the boys on the wards that are sponsored by organizations of Washington Township.

The entertainment part of the evening took up only a small portion of the time, however. Main business at hand was the investiture of the Scouts, under the direction of Larry Thatcher and Bill Koski, which was preceded by short talks by W1/c Noel De Montigny, Camp Parks Seabee, Judge Allen Norris, and Scout Executive Ben Lamkin. George Coit, chairman of the award committee, made the awards.

Thirteen tenderfoot Scouts were invested: Ronald Cardoza of Centerville, Alvin Comes, Fred Ernest Taylor, Ronald Botelho, Andrew Costa, Hubert Wood of Irvington, George Pagan and Roque Feliciano of Decoto and Donald Martin, Bobby Brahmst, Leonard Lyons, Donald Williams and James Hind of Newark.

Second class awards were presented to Robert Silva, James A. Duarte of Centerville; Euladio H. Avila, George Rego, Larry Thatcher, Donald Hibner, Donald Howe, Hemenegildo Sira, of Niles; Leslie Kious Jr., Orbie Robertson, Clarence R. Souza, Jim Griffin, of Irvington; Alvin Silva, Alexander Garcia, Tony Ramos, of Decoto; Donald Petersen and Tommy Gunn of Newark.

First class rank was attained by Hunter R. Moore Jr., Larry Thatcher, of Niles; Roy Stubblefield of Irvington. Star Scouts awarded were Joseph Bettencourt of Centerville, Richard Rego of Niles, John Torquemada of Decoto and Pratt Truscott of Newark.

Life badges went to Raymond Bettencourt and David McWhirter of Centerville, Fred Duffie Jr. of Niles and Joe Hilton of Newark. Earl Silva of Niles was given the five-year veteran award, and Donald Andrade of Decoto the patrol leader's badge. Year pins, perfect attendance pins and merit badges were awarded to a large number representing all troops.

Niles placed first in parental attendance with 69; Centerville and Newark placing next with 45 and 34 parents present.

The program was under the supervision of Fred Duffie, assistant scoutmaster of the Niles troop.

REHEARSALS START FOR SENIOR PLAY

Tryouts for the senior play to be presented in April began this week at the high school.

Entitled, "The Ghost Train," the play is a well known comedy-mystery by Arnold Ridley and includes a cast of 11. The seniors plan to run it two nights with different casts. Mrs. Donald Hegen will direct the production.

MILLER CLEANING PLANT HAS SHOP IN ALVARADO

The Miller Cleaning Company announced this week that it has opened a branch office in Alvarado, where clothes will be picked up and may be called for. The office, next to Ralphs Grocery, will be under the supervision of Mrs. Clara Flores.

KNIFE WIELDER INJURES WOMAN IN ALVARADO

Deputy sheriffs this week were searching for the unknown knife-wielder who late Saturday night slashed at Mrs. Nellie Dela Cruz of Alvarado, sending her to Fairmont Hospital with a severe cut on her right hand.

Mrs. Dela Cruz told Deputy Sheriffs G. Gouveia and B. Buchanan that she was in the act of closing her establishment at 1235 V Street, Alvarado, when a man unknown to her requested some beer.

When she refused the man slashed at her with a knife. According to her description, he was of medium height, light weight and dark skinned.

COUNTRY CLUB BESTS 5 COUNTIES IN CONTEST

The Country Club of Washington Township has won first prize in a war service record book contest, in competition with other clubs in five counties.

This welcome news was announced this week at a meeting of the local women, among them Mrs. E. H. Hirsch, president of the country club, who accepted the presentation award in the name of the club. The first prize was $5.

Mrs. Roland Bendel is the one mainly responsible for the success of the book, which lists war, youth, and civic services performed by each member from the beginning of the war. Mrs. Bendel, with her assistants, has spent many hours compiling the book.

Judges of the contest were all outside of the federation. One was on the faculty at the University of California. Second prize went to the Women's Club of Pittsburg, and third prize was awarded to the club at Northbrae, Berkeley.

In the course of the meeting, Mrs. Hirsch announced that the country club already had sold over $18,000 worth of bonds toward the purchase of a bomber as a federation project. And preliminary reports reveal that the sale of bonds toward the purchase of a Hell-Cat is already oversubscribed. The latter is a district project.

It was also learned during the meeting that Mrs. Bendel has been elected to district nominating committee as member-at-large.

HIGH SCHOOL P.T.A. TO GIVE CARD PARTY, APRIL 4

April 4 was definitely set as the date for a card party to be given by the Parent Teacher Association of Washington Union High School. Arrangements were made at their regular evening meeting on Feb. 8 to present the proceeds to the high school for athletic equipment.

A candlelighting ceremony, directed by Mrs. Marie Brazil, chairman, commemorated the founding of the Parent Teacher Association and honored the founders.

The War Memorial Art Gallery sponsored by the local branch of the California Scholarship Federation was brought to the attention of the unit by Mrs. Emma Doane, faculty adviser. The P.T.A. was asked to co-operate by purchasing a picture. A fund was started and will be completed by the end of the present year.

The social hour was highlighted by the cutting of a beautifully decorated cake by Mrs. R. Calhoun, president.

S. P. CAMPAIGNS FOR INDUSTRIAL WEST

Southern Pacific Company is conducting an intensive campaign to interest eastern industries in locating in the West, and the results are gratifying, said Vice President W. W. Hale, in charge of system freight traffic for the railroad, in a talk before the Western States Council's steel committee conference at Salt Lake City last Saturday.

"We already have assurance of quite a few large nationally known concerns that they intend locating important operations in the West," he said. "This list is being added to almost daily."

The campaign, Hale explained, is being carried on not only by means of full page advertisements in national magazines and similar advertisements in newspapers, but also by the railroad's industrial department.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IN FAVOR OF SEWAGE SYSTEM WEST OF NILES

The Niles Chamber of Commerce last Monday gave its support to a sewage program for the area between Niles and Decoto which is presently not served by any sewage system.

Appearing before the chamber at its weekly luncheon meeting at the Florence Restaurant was Edward E. Enos, who proposed that plans be undertaken now for construction of a sewage system as soon as materials and labor become available.

Before outbreak of the war, Enos had contacted residents of the concerned area and had secured more than the requisite signatures on a petition for a sewage system. The war terminated fulfillment of the plan.

He stated that the most logical procedure would be to secure connection with the Decoto Sanitary District system since natural drainage lies in that direction.

Connection with the Niles district, however, would be feasible in the event that the Decoto district should not favor annexation. This would be somewhat more expensive due to necessity of an iron pipe and pumping plant because of the higher level of the Niles line.

The sanitary situation in the area between Niles and Decoto is quite critical, Enos declared. The heavy soil is not suitable for septic tanks, which overflow in the winter and cause inconvenience and expense to residents.

He suggested that all preliminary steps could be taken now. Tax valuation of the properties concerned could be compiled, elections held, and everything put in readiness for actual construction of the urgently needed sewer system.

197 COMPLAINTS IN SOUTHERN COUNTY IN THREE MONTHS

District Attorney Ralph E. Hoyt reported this week that 197 felony and misdemeanor complaints had been issued during the last quarter of 1944 by the Southern Alameda County branch of the district attorney's office.

Of this total, 22 were felony complaints and 175 charging misdemeanors. Grand theft, for which six complaints were issued, was the largest single cause of action among the felony charges.

Miscellaneous motor vehicle complaints totaling 99 formed the bulk of the causes of action among the 175 misdemeanor complaints issued.

UNIVERSITY HIGH LANDSCAPED BY LOCAL NURSERY

This week marked the completion of a landscaping project of the girls court at University High School in Oakland, with delivery from the California Nursery of 50 trees and shrubs which were ordered by the school and set out under the direction of Tom Robbins of the nursery, who was engaged as landscape architect.

Robbins, well known locally (he has been at the California Nursery for the past 12 years) has been working with the teachers and students for the past several weeks, suggesting varieties of plants and offering valuable advice.

It is nothing new for Robbins, however, as he has taken care of the high school's planting for several years. As a matter of fact, he has more than a passing interest in the school, for it was there that he received his own high school education.

Each graduating class contributes a sum to be used for landscaping. This year's graduating class chose to landscape the girls court. After conferring with Robbins they selected, among others, such plants as weeping birch, flowering fruit trees, mock orange, Kolwitzia, and Pittosporum Tobira.

CLAYTON GEORGE RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP

Announcement was made recently that Clayton George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank George of Nursery Road, Niles, has won a scholarship that entitles him to attend the California Aeronautical Technical College in Los Angeles.

Young George took his college entrance examinations in December and received an exceptionally high score. Those who do outstanding work receive a scholarship, which means that all entrance fees and books will be paid for them.

He will start his studies at the college in June, following graduation from the local high school.

FARM LOAN ASSN. ELECTS DIRECTORS

Preceded by a luncheon prepared by the Ladies Aid Society of the Pleasanton Presbyterian Church, 86 members and guests of the Alameda-Contra Costa National Farm Loan Association gathered for one of the largest and most successful annual meetings in the history of the organization, according to President Hugh S. Walker.

This farmer owned and operated co-operative institutions is in the strongest financial position in its history with reserves and surplus of over $32,000, after payment of a dividend to members.

Elected as directors were: Peter H. Hoare of Hayward and John F. Viera of Antioch for three years; Hugh S. Walker and Dennis Nevin both of Livermore for two years; and John G. Muir of Brentwood for one year. As a special feature, Mr. John Amaral, Alameda County Farm Labor Placement Manager, addressed the meeting on "The Farm Labor Outlook for 1945."

At an organization meeting following, the new board of directors elected Hugh S. Walker, president; Peter H. Hoare, vice-president; Carl Kober, secretary-treasurer; and Verna Delucchi, assistant secretary-treasurer. Kober was also appointed investigator for the loan committee.

NAVY MEN ATTEND LUNCH AT KITCHEN

A group of 35 Navy men attended luncheon at the International Kitchen last Wednesday, in the company of Harold F. Gray, county mosquito abatement engineer, who is their instructor in a mosquito abatement and tropical disease class at the University of California.

The men were down here on a field trip, to see first hand the work done on mosquito abatement. Roland Bendel was also at the luncheon.

Dorothea Ormsby Becomes Bride

Miss Dorothea Marjorie Ormsby, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Ormsby of Centerville, was married Saturday to Theodore Leslie Cottar, big game hunter and son of Charles Cottar, who hunted with Sidney Snow in Africa.

The wedding is the culmination of a romance which began at a New Year's Eve party at the home of Snow, brother-in-law of the bride. The groom has recently returned from service in the South Pacific with the Navy.

He was born in this country but went with his family to Africa when a child. His renewal of an old friendship with Snow upon his arrival here brought about the meeting with his bride.

The ceremony was performed by Judge Daniel Knox in Alameda. The couple will reside in Oakland where they have taken an apartment. The bride was formerly secretary at the Washington Union High School. She is the sister of Mrs. Sidney Snow, Misses Arwina and Phoebe Ormsby of Centerville and Arwin Ormsby of Oakland.

Young Set Stages Pet Show

Junior Misses Carol Louise McFeeley and Mary Lynn Lamoreux, both of Niles, were the impressors of a pet show held last Saturday afternoon in the back yard of the McFeeley home. The younger set of Niles turned out en masse with their beloved poodles to compete for the promised prizes.

In lieu of blue ribbons, color crayons, pencils and sundry objects were awarded in addition to refreshments prepared by Miss Mary Grace McFeeley. Some of those who participated included Emma Jean Farol, Robert Lewis, Duane Spence, Don and Billy Batman, David Turner, Alice Hale, and Helen and Georgina Pickering.

Frades Return From Kansas

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Frades, proprietors of the Niles Clothing Center, returned last week from a trip to Salina, Kansas. They drove to Kansas, with Mrs. Frades' sister, Mrs. William F. Homen, and Mrs. Homen's baby, and returned by train. Mrs. Homen's husband, an Army lieutenant, is stationed in Salina.

The return trip by train, the Frades report, was anything but pleasant. They had to stand in the aisle for 468 miles—eleven and a half hours. At least 30 persons were standing in each car.

Miss McDonald Hears Marian Anderson

Miss Rosemary McDonald, daughter of the J. A. McDonalds of Niles, spent last week-end visiting her sister, Mrs. Julianne Howe, in Berkeley. The girls attended a concert given by Marian Anderson and are loud in their praises of the great songstress.

LA VERNE SILVER MARRIES SEABEE

By JOIS JUSTUS

At a very lovely wedding in the Mission at St. Joseph's Church on Sunday, Feb. 4, Miss LaVerne Silver, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Silver of Sunol, became the bride of Kenneth Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wagner of Chicago. Mr. Wagner is in the C.B.'s and is stationed at Camp Parks. He is working in the telephone exchange, as is also the bride.

The bride was attired in a lovely satin formal gown, short veil, caught at the hair with a spray of flowers, and carried a bride's bouquet of gardenias, a beautiful orchid with lavender streamers and white snapdragons.

Her maid of honor, Miss Phyllis Radbush, wore a pink marquisette gown with matching tiny felt hat and a bouquet of gardenias, streamers of orchid ribbon and pink snapdragons, while the bridesmaid, Miss Edwina Rodriguez, wore a matching gown of blue marquisette, a tiny hat, and carried gardenias, daffodil streamers and narcissus.

Little Marian O'Laughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel O'Laughlin of Sunol, was the flower girl. She was dressed in a lovely frock and carried a basket of varicolored flowers.

SKI/c Clinton Verelle was the best man and EM3/c Rex Young was usher. Both are pals of the groom.

Following the 3 o'clock ceremonies at the church, the bridal party and guests went to the P. G. & E. clubhouse at Newark, where there were refreshments, dancing and the cutting of the beautiful bride's cake.

There was no honeymoon, since the young folks had to report back to work at the base the following morning.

Sometimes there's an Extra Rush on Long Distance

Every day, millions of hands reach for the telephone to use Long Distance. Most of those calls go through quickly.

But sometimes there's a crowd on certain lines. Then Long Distance will say, "Please limit your call to 5 minutes."

That helps everybody.

750 Main Street, Niles Telephone Niles 3631

Dear Peg:

It seems that I don't have time for personal correspondence anymore; so am killing a couple of birds at one typewriter sitting and answering your letter through this column. A little unorthodox, I'll admit, but it serves the purpose, doesn't it?

You asked me some time ago how I like Niles. I've lived here ten months now—long enough to have absorbed some of the atmosphere—so I think that I can tell you. You made the statement that, as you remembered it as you passed through once, Niles was quaint, and that, except for having to shop on such a disreputable looking street as Main Street (you did say disreputable, didn't you?) that you wouldn't mind living here.

Well, Peg, I'll come to Main Street later, but first, before you pull up stakes and start packing, let me tell you a little something about life in a small town. As you have always lived in a city, you are in for a few surprises.

LIFE NOT DULL

Don't get the idea that life in a small town is dull. It is anything but that. There is as much intrigue going on here as there was in the French underground. In fact, there is enough material here to keep a writer of fiction occupied for the rest of his natural life. But if he writes it, he'll have to leave town!

We have our back street romances, our frustrated maiden ladies, our wealthy widows, and our not-so-wealthy widows, our political power-seekers, our gay Lotharios, our promising young men, our social climbers, our delinquents.

Living in an apartment in a city, Peg, you don't really come up against life. You may live in that apartment for years and have merely a nodding acquaintance with your neighbors and some times not even that. Here, you not only know your neighbors, but you know them well—and I do mean well.

Have a quarrel with your husband and it's all over town the next day. And rumors run rife. Probably by nightfall they'll have it that you've bought a ticket to Reno!

In fact, one of the most confusing things to me when I came here were the various reports I received of couples who "don't get along." Every time anybody silled up to me and lowered her voice I knew just what was coming:

"You know the So-and-Sos? Well, my dear, they're nice enough—but they just don't get along!"

Then I began to recognize the stories for what they were worth—just a common garden variety of gossip. (Or heavens, COULD they be true!)

SPEAKING OF GOSSIP

And speaking of gossip, Peg, there are a few things you just do not do in a small town. For instance, it seems that no woman under 50—married or single—considers it proper to ride down Main Street with a married man, not even if it's pouring rain, and to refuse his proffer of a ride would mean a ruined Easter hat.

At this point I suppose you are practically in stitches, Peg, cosmopolite that you are.

But wait! Don't get to feeling too superior and smug about your city conventions. If you're sick in the city, what happens to you? Well, you're left to fix your own chicken broth and nobody gives a hoot, really, whether you've got just a mere cold or lobar pneumonia.

Now, in our small town the neighbors rally 'round. They'll do anything for you, even to coming in and doing your washing. If you've lost a loved one, the whole town is quick to express its sympathy and offers of assistance.

And people in a small town are kinder and more considerate. You'd be surprised at the number of subscription statements that are returned to us (with checks enclosed, of course) that have a notation: "Enjoy your paper so much; keep sending it." That's what I mean, Peg; little thoughtful things that make you feel good and that people in the cities don't bother about.

ABOUT MAIN STREET

And now about Main Street. The worst thing about it is that you get used to it. It is like a good friend whom you thought very ugly at first but for whom, upon further acquaintance, you develop such a liking that you forget the ugliness and think only of the sterling qualities behind the face.

Main Street is like that. You get used to it, and don't mind it, and don't do anything about it, because you come to like the town.

But eventually, after the war, newcomers will drift in. They will see the possibilities of remodeling some of the old buildings or of tearing them down and building new old ones. The old-timers will look upon these upstarts with suspicion but eventually will come to do likewise. They'll see the handwriting on the wall.

Well, Peg, are you ready to pack, or have you settled down in your easy chair and decided that life in the city is pretty good after all?

One thing, Peg, I can promise you. If you come here to live, you won't be bored! Not if you have the imagination and zest for living that I think you have.

Wining and Dining

By ROBERT MAYOCK

(Robert Stoney Mayock is proprietor of Los Amigos Vineyards, Mission San Jose. His knowledge of wines and foods is extensive and his barbecues are famous. Wines from his vineyards have won numerous awards.)

"A Meal In Itself" by Mary Frost Mabon is a book about soups. But in going through the book for the second time I find that it is also a book about salads. Because after each soup recipe, which actually makes a meal in itself, she appends a little advice on how "to complete the meal," after having gorged yourself on a Scotch broth or a mock turtle.

Take the soup Petite Marmite for instance. After its description, Mrs. Mabon continues: "A green, mixed French salad, dressed with good wine vinegar and real olive oil, pepper and salt, a touch of mustard and some fresh chopped herbs, if you have them, is really all you need. And a piece of cheese to finish the good red wine that you have surely provided."

UNKNOWN BUT GOOD

That's fine, she's a lover of good red wine. I'm interested, what win? Might I suggest a California cabernet? There are at least a dozen California vintners who produce a presentable cabernet made in the traditional Bordeaux manner. But I shall only name one, my friends and neighbors, the Rixford Brothers whose La Questa Vineyards at Woodside are entirely Cabernet Sauvignon. Their wines are not advertised and are practically unknown, even in California. But gourmets have beaten a track to their door—and I contend that it's a lot more fun to find a good bottle of wine at the end of a trail than a mousetrap or even a bear trap.

TO COMPLETE THE MEAL

After the recipe for oxtail soup our author suggests: "A turned-out hot mousse or mold made of vegetables. Maybe a ring of pureed broccoli, the center filled with broiled mushrooms; or a ring of pureed Jerusalem artichoke, with a green okra and green string beans piled in the middle. You will also need a cream or hollandaise sauce, to pour over the vegetable mould."

Again after chupe de Mariscos she advises: "A big bowl of very green salad—spinach leaves, beet tops, water cress, chicory or dandelion, romaine, mustard leaves, with cooked asparagus tips and young string beans or green peas—th whole tossed with a rather sharp dressing made with a good strong wine vinegar."

This green salad certainly intrigues me but where to get mustard greens, watercress and dandelions all at the same time is a problem which only a lady who has a frozen food locker could solve. We poor farmers out here in California are a hopeless lot. Modern progress is something we only read about in our Montgomery Ward catalogues. And if Mr. Avery doesn't decide to "play ball" pretty soon, we may even be deprived of that source of information.

Mrs. Mabon is certainly wine-minded. She suggests wines all through her book both in cooking and to embellish the meal. This clearly shows that she understands the art of gracious living. To complete the meal which started with Mous Marinieres she advises:

"You do need dry white wine. The best you can buy is none too good for mussels, and is an indispensable factor, not only in the dish, but drunk with it, properly chilled, and in big glasses. ("Blessed is he who drinks from a large glass" — old French proverb.)

American wines that blend extraordinarily well with this dish are the chablis of the Beaulieu Vineyards from the west the Vignes 1940 from Widmer Brothers in the east, and Chilean Undurraga."

What, no Los Amigos Riesling? Nor even a Wente Brothers Ugni

Blanc? Say, what's this all about, anyway?

Maybe I'd better start reprisals at this point. Maybe I'd better tear this article up before it is printed. There are other cook books. I think I'll just look over The Brown's "Wine Cook Book" or "On the Tip of My Tongue" by Iles Brody or "Dinner at Omar Kayyam's" by George Mardikian. But I guess it's no use; nobody ever plugs for a farmer. He'd be crazy if he did.
